Journals, cash books and ledgers—just the thing the merchant needs—best that can be made. For sale at the Bonanza office.

LOOK AROUND YOUR OFFICE

For ledgers, daybooks, in fact for anything that may be lacking in your office, go to the Bonanza bindery. We have samples of the style of work which is turned out, but for the matter of that one does not have to visit the bindery. There are samples of our work in nearly all the offices in the city.

Our work stands as the best recommendation of the character of the stuff that we turn out. We can do anything in our line that can be done in any of the big cities, can do it as well, and give better service in the matter of prompt delivery than any other institution of the kind in the State.

Give us a trial. We will do the rest.

IN DIRE TROUBLE.

But Uncle Sam Sends Bride a Chaperon.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—When the North German Lloyd liner Cassei arrived yesterday on her way to Baltimore, Frank Truebenback of Mexico City was at the pier to meet his sweetheart, Margaret Jacob of Hannover, Germany. Margaret was at the rail, all smiles and happiness, but her affianced had a lot of explaining to do before he could get aboard, and then there was the immigration boarding officers and rolls of red tape.

The inspectors said the couple must be married aboard the ship or on Ellis Island. They did not want to be married that way. The bridegroom-to-be had arranged for a wedding breakfast, after the ceremony, at the Union Square hotel, and he had his clergyman already engaged.

It began to look so dubious that the happiness of the bride-to-be was changed into surprise and disappointment, while the bridegroom was equally depressed. Passengers sympathized with the weeping Fraulein Jacob, and the clouds continued to gather until Mrs. B. J. Mooney, an immigration matron, thought of the scheme of obtaining permission from Ellis Island to witness the ceremony.

The necessary permission was obtained and Mrs. Mooney, in behalf of Uncle Sam, chaperoned the bride, who dried her tears.

The Rev. George Wenner celebrated the marriage rites at the hotel and the breakfast, at which Mrs. Mooney was a guest, followed.

The bride was born in Valparaiso, Chile, but eight years ago, when she was 16, removed from Chile to Hannover, where she fell in love with Truebenback, who then lived there. They became engaged and five years ago Truebenback went to Mexico City, where he took a position with an American firm. He prospered and sent for his fiancée to meet him.

Mrs. Truebenback is pretty and accomplished, speaking six languages, of which Spanish is one. They have started on their honeymoon, which will include every state in the Union before they reach Mexico City.

WHEN SILK TURNED UMPIRE.

Was Poorest Batter on Team, Made a Hit and Then Quit.

Here's a story that Silk O'Loughlin, the crack umpire of the American league, tells on himself: "I played on an amateur team in Rochester and my position was left field. I'm not a bit swelled when I say that I was a jimdandy outfielder. I was fast, judged a fly ball well, and could throw more than fairly. But at batting I was a frost. Jack Townsend, formerly of the Cleveland team, always reminded me of myself. He hits 'em just about as I did.

"Well, we were playing a hot string at Silver Lake, near Rochester, one day, and I had my accustomed place in the batting order above the pitcher. In the ninth we got two men on bases, one out and me up. We had only one utility hitter, and the manager, after thinking for a long time, decided to send me up and let the extra man bat for the pitcher. 'Strike out,' he said, 'and thus avoid a double play.'

"That made me sore and I went up to the plate, blind with determination. When the first ball came up I shut my eyes and swung at it. By some mysterious chance I shot it over the head of the first baseman, and the swat won the game for us. Right there I retired as a player. The fellows were good enough to insist that I should stay, but I was obdurate. I finally compromised by consenting to umpire for them, and in this way I suppose I worked into the job I've got now."

"For Rent," "For Rent Furnished" and "For Sale" cards on sale at the Bonanza office.

Sensational values have been found on the Placerotis property at Rabbit Hole. It is believed that this will prove to be the richest placer field ever discovered in Nevada.

HOMESTEAD BUYS THE GOOD HOPE

COLORADO PEOPLE BUYS PROPERTY AT SEARCHLIGHT.

A deal for the Good Hope mine, owned by Fred Colton, which has been pending some weeks, was closed Wednesday by Mr. Colton, and the property has been taken over by the Homestead Mining company of Colorado Springs, Colo., the principals of which are Dr. W. N. Caseley, J. E. Van Winkle and Lem Mummah. Included in the deal are the following claims and fractions: The Good Hope, Enterprise, Gypsy, Bell Boy Fraction and Phoenix Fraction.

The deal is known to involve a consideration of more than $100,000, as that figure has been refused several times by the owner.

The transaction is one of the most important made in some weeks, as it means the opening of another big producer in the bonanza belt. The property lies between the Duplex and the Quartette, and sidelines on the north the Golden Treasure and Hidden Treasure claims of the latter property.

The Good Hope was once taken under lease and bond by the Brockman interests and a shaft sent down on an incline 600 feet, from which a drift was run 400 feet. These workings brought forth considerable rich ore and also opened a large body of low grade. It is estimated that there is now showing in the mine $200,000 worth of this latter product, while some high grade is also present.

The shaft is fully timbered and is equipped with a gallow frame, hoist and Cornish pump.

Immediately upon the consummation of the deal W. H. Crozier, an old Cripple Creek, with a thorough knowledge of his business, was placed in charge as superintendent. Mr. Crozier has been prospecting the surface for additional ledges and on Friday afternoon was rewarded by a bonanza find about 100 feet north of the old workings. A round of shots disclosed a shoot of ore carrying a mass of free gold, much of which is visible to the naked eye. In speaking of the find Mr. Crozier said:

"Not in all my experience in Cripple Creek have I seen such surface values and such quantities of surface ores. The possibilities in this property are equal to its neighbors, and we expect to demonstrate this when we begin operations. We will start unwatering the shaft immediately and as soon as this is accomplished will put on a force of 25 men."

A small force is now cleaning up the machinery and around the shaft. It is planned to drive north and south crosscuts from the shaft to tap this as well as other known ledges outcropping on the surface. It is also planned to shortly begin the erection of a 15-stamp mill on the property.

Those heading the corporation are financially able, jointly and severally, to carry out any project they undertake, and with such flattering prospects, and rubbing elbows with the third largest gold mine in the United States and the second largest producer in Searchlight as their next neighbor, the Homestead promises to soon enter polite society.—Searchlight News.

FARRELL CAMP.

Scores Are Rushing in and Taking Up Claims.

FARRELL, Nov. 2.—A wonderful strike on the Kimball & Gordon property, just south of the Caesar property, has awakened this whole district and scores of prospectors are rushing into this country, two stages and all rigs being pressed into service. It is stated that this discovery is greater than the Nevada Hills of Fairview. The vein is more than nine feet wide on the surface and averages more than $235 per ton. Two high grade streaks on the ledge will go more than $1000 per ton. It is a granite porphyry contact and where it is stripped for about 400 feet at the southern end it has widened out for about twelve feet, with about the same assays.

Another rich strike has been made on the Wildcats, near the Blue Birds, about three-quarters of a mile from the Caesar Company's ground and only a short distance from the Seven Troughs Royal.

Those who have seen the recent strikes in this camp, state that there never was a discovery in the districts of Manhattan, Goldfield or Tonopah on the surface that would equal the strikes recently made in the district of Farrell. This is a poor man's camp and the men who are working here are doing their development work under difficulties. They are working steadily along, however, and hope to develop some rich claims before another year has passed. Very little is heard of the district of Farrell, but without a doubt this camp will soon be equal to any other district in the State. Another year will see great changes in the district and the camp will soon have at least a dozen shipping mines.

Since the rich strikes in the locality several prominent engineers have visited the camp and have endeavored to secure options on some of the leading claims, but without success. The owners intend to work them themselves and to ship the ore to the smelters.

Farrell was only started last May, but the town has already made a wonderful showing and as soon as the money market is better, the town will be one of the most active mining camps in all of Nevada. If anyone wants to see a real live mining camp they should come to Farrell and see some real mines with real gold-bearing ore.

SAMUEL WOOD FINDS TREASURE.

Uncle Sam Can Near C. & C. Shaft Filled With Twenties.

"What do you think of this?" exclaimed Sam Wood as he displayed a lobster can filled with twenty-dollar pieces at the C. & C. shaft this morning. "They're all right," replied Carpenter Bullmer, after inspecting one of the twenties, "all they want is to be cleaned of dirt." Mr. Bullmer says there were thirty-six twenties in the can, which bore evidence of having been buried many years.

Mr. Wood on being interrogated as to where he found the hidden treasure, denied the story, but it is shrewdly suspected that the alleged find was made near the C. & C. shaft on the site of a cottage formerly occupied by Alexander Goyette and his family.

On the night of June 21, 1881, Alexander Goyette, while crazed with drink, was taken to his home by Joseph Lafraindre and a man named Monjeau. When they reached the door Goyette drew a revolver and shot Lafraindre through the body and wounded Monjeau and Calix Langlois, and then shot himself. Lafraindre died, but Goyette recovered and served a term in State prison. It is supposed the coin said to have been found by Mr. Wood, was buried by one of the occupants of the Goyette cottage.

The only fishy part of the foregoing story is that the can alleged to have contained the buried coin is too small to hold that amount in double eagles. Since the tale of the find became public a score of men have been delving in the vicinity in the hope of finding more treasure and a dousing stick for the same purpose is in commission.—Virginia Chronicle.
